“ For Becky, Kimberly, Hannah, and the entire Todd family, May our Lord hold you closely and warmly in this time and in the times to come and give you deep comfort. Jeff was such a dear person - kind, warmhearted, generous, inspiring. What a privilege to have known him. He was so caring - just seeing his face in so many photos is a real comfort to us - kindness and humor written all over - anyone can see that this was truly a one-of-a-kind good man. Our prayers are with you always. With love, Jamey and Mary Turner

“ Todd Family, Jeff was the epitome of what God intends for all of us to be in life. He was another brother to Bobby and John, a son to Judy, and a friend that can never be replaced to Bob. We have wonderful family memories between the Todd's and the Hartman families which we will always cherish and remember. The old saying goes, the good die young. This is so true with Jeff. God Bless the Todd Family and God Bless Jeff. Happy Trails Jeff until we meet again. Much Love, The Hartman Family

“ What a lovely man I got the honor to meet. Mr Todd and I met at my husbands award and trophy shop (Dicks trophies and awards). I used to bring my boys up there when I would work. Mr Todd came to the back to see our boys and we had a wonderful visit. We chatted like we had known each other our whole lives. He told me about his Roy Rogers restaurants and I told him Roys was my first job. We had so much in common. He seemed like one of the most genuine people I have ever met. His presence was very soothing. I was actually sad when he left I enjoyed talking to him so much. He had such an impact on us in that short period of time. What a huge pillar to the community. I was so saddend to hear of this loss. This is just devastating. God bless his family. He truly was an angel. Cara Anderson-Riley

“ Jeff recently shared with us his belief that he knew he wouldn't be remembered for how much wealth he had accumulated in his lifetime, but rather for how generous he was to his community and those in need. He was a true giver and will be greatly missed. Our prayers are with Jeff's family and friends.
