“ My deepest condolences to you, the family of Mr. Eiler. I wanted to write you to let you know that you all are in my thoughts at this time, and that I hope you are doing well. But, I am not the only one. It is obvious that Mr. Eiler had many friends that loved him dearly and they are no doubt thinking of you. But, mainly, I am talking about God. At Psalm 34:18, it tells us that God is especially close to his faithful ones when they are broken-hearted. Please know that God is there for you and that we all are thinking of you. Please take care of yourselves and try your best to get your needed rest.
