“ Jerry was a great boss, colleague, and mentor early in my career. More than that, he was the kind of guy that easily made a friend with everyone he met. I'll always carry fond memories of fun ski trips to the Alps while we were living and working in Frankfurt, Germany. I will especially miss his quick wit, winning smile, and quiet, easygoing ways. My heart and prayers go out to Janet, his children, and all those that knew and loved him most.
