“ Even though the miles kept us apart I cherished the text/FB and phone conversations. They mean even more now.

It's impossible to sum up one's life in a few words. But anyone who knew you understood your kindness, love and compassion for your Savior, family and friends. And now at your final goodbye, I again can't be with you in the physical sense, but will be thinking of you forever.

You were/are a great, loving sister. And I miss you!

“ I met Joanne on my first trip to Alexandria with Dave her son in 2010. I fell in love with her immediately and she always treated me like a daughter. Her sense of humor always made me smile. She was really funny. I kept every card that she ever sent me. She always drew hearts and flowers and had something wonderful to say to me. They were works of art. Her love of God was strong and she was a woman to be respected. Her comfort to me after Dave's death was always there. She truly loved me. The Robertson family will always be apart of me and in my heatt. I am very sad to lose Joanne. Dave will be happy to see her. She is a remarkable woman. Carol Shipley

“ I remember Joanne so well when she worked in the office at St. Lawrence! She was always sweet and personable. We also would bump in with each other either at church, parking lot of grocery store or just “around town”. She always had a smile on her face and a hello. We have had conversations about her grandchildren and my sons. Last time we saw each other, I had my youngest son with me. She was just “smitten” by him. She will be sorely missed. My condolences to her family. Prayers for her soul and transition to her heavenly life which gained an Angel.

“ She was like a second mother to me. Whether threatening to hit me with a wet noodle, or feeding me barbecue pork chops, she was the absolute best and I will miss her.
