“ Shirley and I will always have fond memories of John, and your visits to the RE/MAX South office. I enjoyed being his broker and talking with him. Shirley always enjoyed her conversations with Ms Rita as she waited for John to complete his paperwork. We will long remember you both.

“ Dear Rita, My mother and father (Harold & Lois Currie) spoke of John and you so often. They loved John and his accomplishments in life. I remember when my parents would talk about the time he flew over the Prescott fairgrounds and Josie just could not believe her little brother. She spoke so loving and they were two little kids without a mother, but they grew up very well. So sorry about John, I remember him well. Love, Phyllis
