“ John trained me as a dispatcher in EOC in the early 80's in the basement of the Masey Building. John's professionalism as a dispatcher was paramount. The best dispatcher, and he knew Rt.1 like the back of his hands. God speed my friend. Robert Scott

“ Johnny was one of the first guys I met in EOC. He was quiet, funny and a Master police dispatcher. He was kind to all and loved his family deeply. He also loved the Dixie Pig--I found a artist pen drawing and immediately bought it for him to remember the old days. I often asked his opinion as he was usually right on target. I feel blessed to have known him. Rest in peace my friend!

“ First boy I dated with a car around 1958 or 1959. My mother loved him! The group of friend's we hung out with had so much fun at Mt. Vernon back then. Saw him I believe in the middle 70's at Belle View Hardware. Very nice & kind teen and grown man. I'm sure he will be missed by many. RIP Johnny!
