“ My dearest friend Jack, I am greatfull that we called each other before you left. It was a very long call, everything has been said, it was as we knew that every call could be the last one. It was a very sad call, things and thoughts you only can share with more than a friend, something from the highest level. We will miss you as much We missed Annette a few years ago. Fare well, my friend, and, as said in the poem you send me; Old Pilots never die. Peter and Christiane Kraainem,17.06.2017. To: Lindsey , 32 2 731 14 41.

“ I had the opportunity to work with Jack for a couple of years. He was a dedicated, convincing colleague who believed in being a team player and leading teams. Above all, it was a pleasure to see him away from work environment, and his affectionate, friendly and amiable personable personality. In our few years, he made a mark on me, and I will always remember his warm welcome and the hearty laughter. May his soul rest in peace.
