“ It was rewarding to be around John Gass and his company; a great place to learn the right way of construction and how to get along in the construction industry being Open, Honest, and Fair. I will always remember the Gentleman who I watched and learned from for many years in the industry. Mr. Gass's legacy lives on with Sam and the company he started many years ago. When you feel lonely, just remember the many good times with the old gentleman and how he would have done things. I know he is in a good place right now. God Bless You !

“ To the Gass Family: I wanted to send my deepest and sincere condolences during this unfortunate time in your lives. I would like to share a scripture to bring your family much needed comfort found at John 5:28,29 which in part read:" Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out,". Your family will be in my prayers, my sincere condolences.
