“Dad, you are the kindest, truest, most genuine person I’ve ever known. Everyone you’ve ever met could call you their friend. You had a way of making things better, no matter the circumstance. I miss you so much. I’m so sorry we didn’t have more time together and I didn’t try harder as an adult to make time for what I would miss so dearly. You were a true angel on earth and everyone who has ever met you is a better person having known you. I love you more than life itself and miss you painfully. I only hope you can forgive me for not being there for you when I should’ve been. Words cannot describe what I feel right now thinking of you and wishing you were here. I’d give anything only to hear your voice. Being your son gives me a lot to live up to, and I can only hope to be half of the man you were. The proudest I have ever felt, is when one of your friends tells me how much I remind them of you. I know you are with god and he is happy to have you home. So until we meet again, I love you so much dad, your son JC.

“To Johnny's family I offer my heartfelt condolences. Johnny was a friend to all and welcomed everyone. He never lost touch with his friends and always had a smile and a laugh that was contagious. I can speak for my daughters that he will be missed by all of us and know he is at peace in heaven.

“ So shocked.....I haven't seen Johnny in probably 25 years but, when I thought about our old neighborhood, he always stuck out in my mind. Last time I saw him we just picked up as if time never passed. My thoughts and prayers to Mrs. Johnson, Pam & Jackie and the rest of Johnny's family. You will be missed, my friend.....Bill Polen

“ Johnny was my friend for over 42 years. We never lost touch or had across word between us. I guess he was as close to being a brother more then just a friend. I could tell so many stories; heartaches and wonderful memories that we shared together but it would take me forever so I will just say this. It sir was a honor and a pleasure to call you my friend. I will love you as a brother for as long as I am on this earth. You have a wonderful family and two great children and last but not least you had one of the biggest, kindest hearts of any person I have ever had the pleasure to know. May you rest in peace my brother and Godspeed my friend. Until we meet again. Thank you for your wonderful friendship. Joe.

“ Always a smile and a hug when I would see him. As Johnson cousins, there was always a bond with all of us. As time and miles separated us, we didn't always see each other for a while, but when we got together, no matter what the occasion, that bond was there. You will be missed, but always remembered. RIP CUZ. Love Joyce

“ Johnny was my step father when he married Ann Marie. He raised me as his own and taught me a ton about wrenching on cars and finishing what you started. But one of the biggest things he taught me was patients and attention to detail. Him and I worked on his 72 pick up truck doing the custom wood bed. This took forever !!!! lol Sand sand sand then stain and then ton of layers of protective coats.

I also remember being in the hospital when I was younger for surgery, I had to finish a tiny soda before they would let me leave. Well I was young stubborn and didn't want to finish drinking it. He knew I was frustrated and I just wanted to go home. He closed the curtain picked up the soda and drank it for me and smiled. He then said shhhhhh let's get you home. I smiled and he "broke me out of jail"

So many great memories

Love you Johnny

“ I KNEW JOHNNY THROUGH ANN MARIE. JOHNNY WAS ONE OF THE NICEST PERSONS I EVER MET. ALTHOUGH I HAVE NOT SEEN HIM IN YEARS, I AM DEEPLY SADDENED OVER HIS DEATH. MAY THE LORD KEEP HIS SOUL.

“ You were the best brother any sister could have asked for. I love you so much Johnny and I am so sorry I didn't visit more often. My heart is breaking but my faith is keeping me sane. I know you and dad are together and that makes me feel so much better. Until we meet again

“ We grew up together, we dated through most of high school. There is a piece of my heart you will occupy forever. You really were a kind and gentle soul. That re-union you had talked about with Carol will not take place here and now but we will all get together when we meet again. Love you my friend.
