“ The Stratford Landing Elementary School staff was deeply saddened to learn of the death of Mr. Peterson. He was a dedicated father and a strong advocate of his children's educational experiences. Mr. Peterson and his wife regularly attended all concerts and activities in support of their children, and Mr. Peterson was a guiding light for their academic success and achievement. Our deepest sympathy go to Mrs. Peterson, Sarah, Mary, and Stephen. They are in our thoughts and in our hearts.

“ John was a wonderful neighbor and will be very missed. He never missed an opportunity to help a neighbor. When it snowed yesterday, I thought of John, a lone light on a dark wintery night traveling up and down the sidewalk with a snow plow, happily cleaning the sidewalks for the entire street. He was, one-of-a-kind. Our families prayers and sympathy go to Linda, Sarah, Mary, and Stephan for their great loss.
