“ I remember playing basketball with John John at Enterprise. We had classes together at Saunders which started our friendship at 7. We may have moved but remained in contact. I know he was appreciative of the support from his family and friends. His smile will always remind me I am blessed. He gave me so many great memories.

“ I knew John as a teenager through his mother, Lina. He often came to her place of business which my wife and I frequented. I last saw him recently when I visited him in Fairfax Hospital. He was always a kind, gentle, and cheerful man who endeared himself to everyone with whom he came into contact. It was most unfortunate that he had to endure pain and health issues for most of his life. He was undeserving of it. Rest In Peace my good man.
