“ Dear Carole and Family,

My deepest sympathy to all of you.

I used to work with John at Goodway Graphics. John's wit, knowledge, sense of humor, and service he gave to his customers will never be forgotten. I remember having the pleasure of planning his retirement party.

*In deepest sympathy,
Frances Campbell*

Peaceful White Lilies Basket - February 21, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ I think my Parents may have known Carol and Johnny before I was born. During my early years I lived in the same neighborhood as the Savages. I grew up with my Mom babysitting Brian and my Aunt babysitting Cathy and Jenny. The Savage Family was considered by us to be an unofficial part of our family. And in 1994, Johnny’s daughter Cathy, made the familial connection official by marrying my cousin, Dan. In 1999, I had the pleasure of working in a professional capacity with Mr. Savage via an event for work. The same calm, easy-going nature I knew him to have when I was a child, was still there. My heart is heavy for the Savage’s loss and will keep them in my prayers.

My deepest sympathies,

Tamara Stephens (Harold "Unkie", Teresa and Barbara)
