

John George Stephanos

November 22, 1986 - December 16, 2020

John George Stephanos, beloved son of George and Denise Stephanos, unexpectedly passed away on December 16, 2020. He is also survived by his sisters, Maria, Norah and Despina Stephanos.

John was born in London, England in 1986. Growing up in a military family, John attended school in four different states, Maryland, Florida, Connecticut and Virginia. He graduated from Hayfield Secondary School in Alexandria, Virginia. He then attended Virginia Tech where he studied computer science and became an avid Hokie fan. He was successful in many positions in the information technology field and throughout his career he became the go to problem solver for the most difficult issues.

John enjoyed on-line games and at one point established his own server that was used by other players from as far away as Europe. He had many friends around the world who he connected with through his on-line activities. Most important was his lovely girlfriend Cata, who he loved so much and hoped to spend his life with.

John's love of games and analytical mind resulted in many joyful evenings with his family around the dining room table competing on his latest game purchase. Those fun evenings, with John explaining often complex game rules, are one of the many memories his family will cherish. He was dearly loved by his family.

Due to the COVID pandemic, services are not being held at this time, but his extended family will celebrate his life in their hearts and in future family gatherings.

In lieu of flowers, John would probably appreciate a donation to either of the below charities:

- Gamer's Outreach, a charity that provides electronic games to help children in hospital during their treatment (<https://gamersoutreach.org>)
- The National Down Syndrome Society (<https://www.ndss.org>)

“ Dear Stephanos family,

To quantify how much John meant to myself and the others who surrounded him is impossible. I had only recently shared a relationship with John over the past year and a half, but in the short amount of time we shared together he made a tremendous effort to establish a lasting relationship that was very heartfelt. John also took the time to help me grow and learn coding and the tech world. I'm currently pursuing an avenue in data science and his words of encouragement, as well as guidance, helped give me the courage to pursue my goal. John will forever be missed by those who were lucky enough to have a relationship with him, he was a class act and standup gentleman. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

My deepest condolences,

“ Dear Stephanos family,

I am truly heartbroken to hear of John's passing. My deepest condolences to you all. I first met John in 2016 through online gaming and we quickly became friends through our shared interest in technology and gaming. Throughout these last 4 years we kept in touch weekly and it was clear from the moment I met John how caring and kind he was. These qualities were seen by the hundreds of players in our community who also knew him. I am so sorry for your loss, all our thoughts are with your family in this time.

“ Dear Denise and Yiod, Evelyn called me and told me what had happened. To say I was heart broken is an understatement. I have thought of my family often over the past 73 yrs I only wish I had stayed closer and kept in touch to enjoy our deep devotion to each other and to have been there to experience everyone's life. My thoughts are with all of you today and are in my prayers to God for peace and understanding and that even through this you can feel His loving arms surrounding all of you. I pray that I might see you some day soon. All my heart felt love Tommy Stephanos, Panayi and Soula

“ George and Denise- deepest sympathies on John's death. My first memories of John were from the time down in Miami when I got to see you all in your close loving family. He even agreed to give me the bottom bunk the night I was stranded at your place late at night. His good nature, curiosity, and intellect were clear to see back then. That is why some 20 years later it was very satisfying to see him using that same intellect and good nature dealing with people at Coast Guard Headquarters. He kept that same smile and helpful attitude even when things got hard.

So it is hard to understand losing him so soon. May your treasured memories of John and the strength of the Stephanos Family be with you during this difficult time.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let Your perpetual light shine upon him. May John's soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

“ I am so sorry to hear of John’s passing. I brought him on a project at CGHQ and in my opinion, he was a very mature and hardworking person. We had so much work but John took everything in stride and was responsible for a lot of the division success. Whenever I interacted with John, he reminded me a lot of his Dad with some of the same mannerisms and laughter. He was a fine person and I know he will be sorely missed. “ Dear Denise, George, and Family,
I am so sorry to hear that you have lost your son John. I hope that despite the limitations on physical gatherings, those closest to you are able to hold you closer in this dark and difficult time. It makes me smile to learn that much of John's work involved connecting people electronically across time and space in the online gaming community-- I am sure his work on those networks has brought extra comfort and belonging to others throughout the pandemic, and I trust the impact of his work will outlive him, much like your own memories. I hope those memories bring you comfort as you navigate this devastating loss.

“ Growing up John George and his sisters were our favorite cousins. We were all so close in age we just absolutely loved spending time together and had endless fun. I remember on many occasions trying to sneak John George home with us... one time I believe we got pretty far away before my parents heard his distinctive giggle under the seat of our mini van where we had him stashed. He was always so joyful and loving and will be desperately missed. I pray God will comfort everyone mourning John George in the way that only He can. Thanks be to God that He made the way for us to everlasting life through Jesus Christ. One day we will all be together again.

“ George was serving in London in 1987 when I was assigned as the new Commanding Officer of LORAN Station Kargaburun near Istanbul, Turkey. I spent four or five days in London in the way to Turkey and saw George there. He also visited me in Turkey to complete the tower inspection, as I recall. I never realized he had a wife and kids in London, but so was young and single then. Now I realize what a treasure he had in them, then and now. My heart goes out to all of you in the most difficult time. May God's inexpressible comfort be with you, through his Son Jesus, who bore our grief and carried our sorrows, and still does so today.
