

Johnathan Thomas "Jeigh Tea"

April 14, 1986 - May 30, 2024

The world lost a unique ray of light, beauty, grace, wit and undeniable charm when Johnathan Ross Thomas, affectionately known to those who loved him as Jeigh Tea, passed on May 30, 2024.

Johnathan was a trained dancer, a trusted coach, and an insightful, full person with an incredible sense of self and style. His love and his friendship was a privilege for those who knew him for it was never given away cheaply. His voice could never be dulled or silenced because Johnathan moved through the world unabashedly in his existence -- whether he was on stage or in the quiet of his home, he was radiant.

The beloved husband of Matthew Wilkinson; Jeigh and Matt shared a life rich in love, true acceptance and a profound humor that made their many years and many adventures precious together. Together they were an inviting, warm family, a fact known to all who ever shared even a moment with them.

Johnathan was the deeply loved son of Bryan Irvin and Angelina Thomas Milner, brother of Marvin Irvin, Asha Millner, Marcus Thomas, and Latricia Irvin. He will also be missed by his grandmothers Janice Walker Tilley, and Barbara Irvin. Father and Mother-in-law Scott and Gina Wilkinson, his beloved dog Stensby, and the countless lives he impacted.
