“ I have just finished reading Reclaim Your Brain and enjoyed his insight so much that I wanted to write to him. I have to wait now the time of the resurrection when the one having the keys of death and Hades will use them to awaken those who have fallen asleep in death to live in a world where suffering will be no more

“ Although I am saddened by the loss of any life or of someone gone too soon and leaving behind family to mourn their loss. This man while I was a patient at the Amen Clinic only ruined my life and it is a miracle I am still alive from the toxic mix of drugs he prescribed over several years. It's been 10 years and I am still trying to regain back my life and start again, and still tapering off of meds he so recklessly prescribed. My life and my brain may never be the same, to give you an idea of the terrors and scars this potent drugs and the doctors who prescribe it so recklessly leaves behind for it's victims. I am 100% worse than before I ever stepped into his office. He absolutely ruined my life and as he 'rests in peace', I live on to suffer in his legacy.

Dawn I understand completely!!!! While it is sad that this man died at what is considered young by todays stats. This man was unfortunately a very very arrogant sarcastic pride filled ego filled man whose poop didn't stink so to speak.

This man heard only one side of a story that being from my severely unhealthy wife with post Pardon depression bipolar anger temper flare ups but she refused to ever go get tested for any of these health issues right. So they just stayed at very dangerous levels far as health goes. Her family was also trying to use that as a way to force a divorce so they could share her half of divorce proceeds!!!! Can you believe that Dawn!

I married in 1996 and for the next 15 years it was a pure hell because of my wife's anger and temper on top of her crummy family trying to do what they were trying to do!

Fast forward to my appointment with this man and it went AWFULLY!!!!!!

He was very arrogant sarcastic in his tone with me the whole time. The. He forced me to allow my wife back into the room and it was two against one that being me!!!!

He sat there and all he did was try to convince my wife to leave me with our daughters all because he was mad that my truthfulness about all that was happening at home didn't match all the baloney and untruths my wife was feeding him!!!!

I filled a complaint against him with his manager as well as the BBB!!!

I hope that if he believed in Jesus sincerely that God is sharing with him about all the things he did or said that were not right of him to do!

I hope God disciplines this man otherwise there's no reason for him to be amongst other spirits in heaven.

God bless you Dawn

“ We at Life Line Counseling Center were very much saddened to hear of Joe's untimely death. He was an insightful compassionate good friend. He opened doors for us to participate in the brain related seminars and training the Amen clinic provides. He wrote one of the best books on the brain: Reclaim You Brain I have read. We will miss him professionally and personally. Rest in peace Joe.

“ We were so saddened to find out that Dr. Annibali passed away. He was an outstanding doctor, helping my two sons and my father with some issues they had, when other doctors just threw their hands up and gave up. He was extremely empathetic - you could tell that he really cared about his patients and had a passion for his field. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family. He will definitely be missed.

“ We also just received a letter, from the Amen Clinic, letting us know that Dr. Annibali has passed, because he was our daughter's doctor. We want to extend our most sincere condolences to all who were close to him and especially his family. This is a great loss for all. We are so greatly saddened and we only met him a couple times. After a year of trial and error we flew from Minnesota to Reston to seek help for our daughter and we could not have asked for more or better than Dr. Annibali. He was so compassionate, understanding, and knowledgeable. We are so grateful. He is the only one who has really helped us and got us in the right direction. We were so blessed to have met him. Our hearts go out to you in this time of loss.

“ Dear Family,
We are deeply saddened to learn of the sudden passing of our dear colleague, and Dr. We have known Joe for 25 years. We had many commonalities, our love of psychoanalysis and helping those who suffer, and love of family. We are deeply grateful for all the help given to our family over the years. His contribution to the field will live on forever. Please know each family member is in our hearts and prayers as you gently, over time find a way to live alongside this loss. What an honor to be at the celebration of life today. Peace and blessings be with you during this tender time.
