“ *Dear Family,
We are sorry to hear of your loss. The many tributes give evidence that Mr. Joe is loved and will be sorely missed. May the many memories you shared bring you peace and acceptance. Know that Almighty God "is close to those who are brokenhearted. He saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) Please accept our sympathy.*

“ My deepest condolences are offered to you, Sonya. I appreciated both your friendships and enjoyed our occasional get togethers to hear of your wonderful travels. Joe lived a long, productive and joyful life. I know you will miss him dearly, but know that his memory is your heritage, a blessing from above...his gentle spirit, even now, encircles you with love. With my deepest sympathy, Sandi Miller-Thomas

“ When I heard the news of the passing of my Uncle Joe, I realized that he would have to suffer no more. He gave it a good fight but now he can finally rest. I am a fortunate nephew to have had Joe Livingston as my Uncle. His kindness, love, support and care were an amazing gift to me. Two years ago, he and Sonya visited us here in CA and it was the best visit ever. He was his witty self and shared so much of himself to my friends here. We shared so much in common. I know he will always be with us, in our hearts but I will miss him dearly. My deepest sympathy to Sonya and Todd.
Your devoted nephew, David T. Livingston

“ My Uncle Joe lived a blessed life. I'm so happy that he was able to get so much enjoyment out of his travels with his wife Sonya. He also enjoyed giving to various charitable organizations and I'm sure they appreciated his support immensely. I enjoyed our long talks over the phone and I'm so happy to have visited him with my siblings last September. Rest now, Uncle Joe. No more pain.
Love,
Your niece,
Patricia A. Livingston
