“ Heya Grandpa Joe I know you're in a better place now and that you and Nanna are watching over the family and extended family from the heavens above. I know we will meet again someday, until then I will miss you and think about you often. We have shared some really great memories over the years and I am glad that I was able to celebrate my 18th birthday with you last year. To Mum (I am really proud of you!), my relatives and my friends thank you for being a part of my grandfathers life and being of great care and support to my family though this difficult time.

“ Dear Joe It has been a privilege to know you and we are so glad that Anne brought you and Louise into our lives. Although we lived thousands of miles apart in different countries, we were fortunate to share special times and have happy memories of occasions together in Australia and the USA. You will now be with Louise and the Lord and enjoy everlasting life. Thank you for the memories.

“ What a special man! He became our friend when he and my husband Bill were in the Virginian. We shared good times there with family and friends. He was very proud of his family and spoke often of them. Joe will surely be missed!
