“ Marcus and Shavon,

My prayers are certainly with you as I to was very anxious to have the opportunity to witness such outstanding parental guidance which your child was already feeling. Marcus please know that you are in my opinion a fine Man and the lord will continue to work with you both in knowing that you deserve to be the parents that you want to be. Knowing you for over ten years now has led me to believe when you put your mind to it things will happen. Please keep yourselves focused and heads up as your opportunity to parent has come and gone though Joseph did have the chance to feel your love you still have more to give. Your time will come again. Marcus everyone on the court sends prayers for you and your family.

Blessings to your family. Lord hear all of our prayers.
