“ You are always in our prayers and thoughts Tiya Josephine 🙏🙏

Saying Goodbye! Though tearful Goodbyes when a loved one dies. faith shines through somehow for because of God's Son and what He has done it is only goodbye for now,

Fear not, for I am with you, Do not be afraid for I am your God, I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my Victorious right hand. Isaiah 41:10 🙏🙏

Rest In Peace Tiya Josephine ❤️❤️ Love Nden & Carl

“ My Auntie Josephine was like a second mother to me, and she still is in my heart forever. My fondest memory with her was when I was eight years old, my grandparents (Auntie Josephine’s parents) used to travel to a place called Magpet once a month and they can’t take small children with them because the place was a dense forest, and they were just starting to settle there (my father was helping them and Mama Inday was on vacation at that time). Anyway, lolo and lola have no choice but to leave me and my three younger brothers under the care of Auntie Josephine. She cared for us like her own children. (Make a note, she has seven children of her own). She was the kindest and most caring human being I have ever known. She was an aunt that can give you hugs like your mom, keep secrets like a sister, and share happy moments like a friend. I thank God for His divine intervention that I was able to visit her on Sunday and whispered loudly, “THANK YOU AUNTIE FOR TAKING CARE OF ME AND MY BROTHERS WHEN WE NEEDED A LOVING, SAFE AND TRUSTING HANDS” AND WE LOVE YOU! Then she nodded to confirm she heard me. Go in peace Auntie Josephine, until we meet again. Much love, Mimi/Rose

“ LONG READ, MY APOLOGIES IN ADVANCE. The photo below is the last gathering (2015) I attended with the Matas clan. We have lost loved ones over the years. It looks like weddings and funerals are life events that force us to come together to spend time together in celebration. I am going to try my very to be there to bid farewell to Auntie Josephine. This woman has contributed so much to a better world that we are blessed to live in. Her legacy remains in the faces of her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, ALL successful in their individual life journeys because of the values and beliefs she has demonstrated over the years. Growing up I have been fond of Auntie Josephine. She has that beautiful smile, and humbling, and nurturing attitude. I learned from watching her tirelessly while she serves everybody in her mix, especially her husband, the late Uncle Bito. She loves deep and is a FORCE by herself. I fell in love with Aunt Josephine when I was 10 years old. She came to visit us in Davao with my Auntie Susing and Uncle Greg. I offered to do everybody's nails, a new skill I learned and am eager to apply. When it was her turn, I was surprised to see a set of hands that were callous...her nails although strong was not even. The middle and index fingernails were shaved down not because of nail filing, but from scouring pots and pans I learned from her. She was laughing as she tells me her story. I admire her strength, her perseverance, and zest for life no matter the circumstances. Her hands proved that she is not afraid of hard work and she sees everything in the most positive way. The Holy Spirit in her invokes as she offers counsel when sought. I will miss her but am very grateful for the times we spent together. May she rest in peace in heaven as she joins my mom and others waiting for her.
