As a father, Juan was an exceptional man. He loved his family so much and dedicated his life to living and enjoying every fun opportunity he had with his wife and children. He enjoyed going on road trips, eating a quick lunch under a tree somewhere with his family during a trip, and traveling for hours to absorb the beautiful country scenery with his children. During the ups and downs of life, he was a strong pillar that kept the family glued together, no matter what. He was a great provider and pastor of his family. His heart and mind were full of gratitude to our Lord for everything that was put in front of him. He was a decision maker and unafraid to move forward through the good times and the times of challenge. He was never afraid to be the best version of himself each day and to be there for his family. His hobbies included music and football. He was a die-hard Redskins, now known as The Commanders. He loved to sit by the fire with his family on a beautiful night and listen to his favorite music.

As a son, he made his parents proud. He respectfully and tenderly loved and cared for his parents.

His work expertise was in the automotive industry. He had such passion and knowledge and was the best problem solver of them all. He worked hard but smart at the same time. Juan was very loved by family, friends, and co-workers.

His accomplishments include placing first as a student wrestler while attending Edison High School in Fairfax County, accomplishing a successful 30 + years as a carrier in the automotive business, serving as a national sales trainer, and traveling to many states in the US. His last job was at Priority Toyota as Service Lane Manager, a job that he performed with a high level of professionalism and dedication. He impacted those around him in a positive way.

Juan will be missed by family and friends, especially his immediate family.
Rest in peace.
