“ to my cousins: we have not had much contact since we have gotten older, but, I do think of the times I spent at your home. I always remember your mom and dad's visits to Nanticoke. He always took us for cokes. I remember taking your mom and dad to a restaurant in Alexandria some years back. He and I drank too much wine. I also went fly fishing last thursday for the first time since 1993, and I used the flyrod your dad had made for me, also the first time. I thought of your mom and dad as I caught at least a dozen trout on that day. It is strange that I would get Marcy's phone call the weekend. My thoughts and prayers for you and your mom and dad. tom matulewski
