“ I'm so sorry I could not attend the celebration of life for Kana. Kana and I were friends. That's very nice to be able to say since our relationship was a later- in-life one and we come from such different backgrounds. Kana didn't care that I never learned to use chopsticks; and I got used to the different things she liked to eat. In common, we loved ALL the NCIS TV series, Wordscapes on our phones, and playing the slot machines. And of course, our beautiful grandsons. I remember we spent an entire morning playing with Max when he was a little baby.think we had more fun than he did. I'll miss her christmas letters full of her adventures and I will miss her.

“ Words cannot say enough to illustrate the kind and warm heart that Kana share with all her family, friends and all those she is in contact with.

She is the sister that I never had. No judgements, but open arms to envelope you with love and comfort. All those who has been touch by her wisdom will never forget.

“We love you, Kana.”
