

Katharine A Maugans

September 23, 1926 - September 7, 2010

Captain Katharine Allen Maugans USN (Ret.)

On September 7, 2010 of McLean, VA. Born September 23, 1926 in Alexandria, VA. Beloved wife of the late Commander Frank O. Maugans USN (Ret.). Strong Christian and faithful member of Greenbrier Baptist Church in Arlington and the Vinson Hall Chapel. Served proudly as an officer in the United States Navy for 30 years. Alumnus and life-long supporter of Longwood University. Resident of Vinson Hall for 15 years. Survived by her sisters, Ann Smith and Mary Stoner Hailes, many nieces, nephews, cousins, and countless dear friends, including her cat, Blue Angel, who will miss her bright smile, quick wit, sharp intellect, and encouragement. Relatives and friends are invited to a memorial service and reception celebrating her life well-lived at Vinson Hall Chapel, 6251 Old Dominion Dr., McLean, VA on Sunday, October 3 at 2pm. Inurnment 1 PM Friday January 7, 2011 at Arlington National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Greenbrier Baptist Church.

Tribute Wall

“ Katharine A Maugans

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ I am sorry that we just heard of Aunt Katharine's passing. I send my sympathy to the entire family. My husband, Mark, was Uncle Frank's nephew. We would have loved to come meet friends and family at Aunt Katharine's memorial service.

January 31, 2011 at 12:00 AM