“ Keith was always there as a good friend. We shared a love of music, together we rocked over 36 concerts from the late '70s through the early '80s. He loved baseball; I went with him a couple of times to see his Rangers play Baltimore. He liked to sit in left field and cheer every Ranger hit and boo every Orioles hit, but we always made it out of Baltimore in one piece.

Cheers Keith! You will be missed but not forgotten.
