

Keith Arthur Youngman

May 18, 1982 - June 27, 2007

Keith Youngman, age 25, died recently at his home in Alexandria, VA of natural causes. He grew up in Hopkinton and Gilford, NH. He was a 2001 graduate of the Holderness School in Holderness, NH and a 2005 graduate of Hartwick College in Oneonta, NY. Keith was an avid outdoors enthusiast and enjoyed biking along the Potomac River, lacrosse, golf, skiing and hiking the White Mountains in NH and the Adirondacks in NY. He especially looked forward to spending time at the family camp on Lake Champlain, where he enjoyed boating and spending time with family and friends. He had been employed by Deloitte & Touche LLP in Washington, DC in the Federal Practice since graduation and was looking forward to pursuing graduate school for advanced studies in Economics. Keith is survived by his loving sister Maria, and parents, Candace and Gerald. Keith was an energetic young man who always carried a bright smile, a welcoming hello and will be missed by all who knew him. A memorial service will be held at St. James Episcopal Church, 5614 Old Mill Rd., Alexandria, VA at 3:30 on Monday, July 2, with a reception to follow. A second memorial service will be held on July 7 in Hopkinton, NH.

“ It's been a very long time since I've seen Keith, we went to Holderness together, but I can still see his face and smile. I will always remember him as the young guy that just had a passion for life and was always so nice to everyone. In fact in a lot of ways he was the ideal Holderness student always striving for more and take all of life's adventures head on.
