“ dad i miss you so much words can't describe. you were my strength. you were always there for me when i needed you. i still hear your words of wisdom when i am struggling . you were a selfless person not just for me, but for everyone you cared for. i think of you everyday and i hear your words in my head when i need you. i hope you know what an amazing and one of a kind man you were. its hard to put into words what you mean to me. i love you so much and i hope you know how much you did for me as a person. i will take your positive attitude and your fight with me for the rest of my life. i hope you can see down from heaven and i miss you more than words can say. dad, i miss you so much. i love you.

“ Janet and family, I went to George Washington High with Kenny and Ralph. I lost my wife Nancy Fox last December who was in Kenny's class. They are together now in a better place smiling down on all their friends and loved ones. Kenny was the best, and I remember his words of wisdom and the fun times we had in school. I am sorry we did not keep up more but will always remember the good times. Please stay strong and keep your faith. My best, Jon Miller GW 'class of '66. jhmpaint@aol.com

“ My deepest sympathies to all who worked with and knew Ken! I met him via Bill Steinberg and we worked together for the past three years. He was always so kind, and so diligent in all of his dealings. I pray for all of your family members to find peace in the days that follow. Ken, I am so sorry that I will not be speaking to you again. I know you were quite spiritual, let God be your guide and help you find your way . . . my love to all. patricia
