“ Hey Dad,

“Hey Buck!” This was always the start to our conversations. I knew no matter how bad a day was you were there to listen. You were always so supportive, and loved all of us so much. In my 33 years I can't think of one single time where you shot down an idea I had, turned your nose at a belief or even changed the radio or television station. And lord knows we had a colorful mix of both!

I credit my being a man to you. My good character, respect toward others, and a firm handshake. You taught me the value of a good days work and that the work is not done until it's done!

Above all, you taught me how to love. Your willingness to accept people and treat people with kindness has taught me so much and done so much for my life. Thank you for giving me all of you for 33 years. I won't let you down!

- Kurtis (Buck)
