

Kirsti Reeder Tyson

January 3, 1957 - March 19, 2024

On Tuesday, March 19, 2024, Kirsti Reeder Tyson of Woodbridge, VA, passed away. She was the devoted mother of Michael Reeder (Valerie), Heather Tyson, and Chris Tyson. She was a cherished grandmother of Julie, Marian, John, Hailie, Nevaeh, Justin, Sky, and Jack, and an adoring great-grandmother to Uriel, Marcel, and Ciela. She was much loved by her siblings, Carol, Janet, and John and numerous nieces and nephews. Kirsti was predeceased by her much loved siblings, Rick, Sandy, and her niece Charli.

Kirsti worked for the Catholic Diocese of Arlington, most recently working as the Business Manager at Saint Raymond Catholic Church, from the construction groundbreaking until her retirement.

She was very active in Girl Scouting for many years, where she co-lead her daughters' Cadette and Senior Girl Scout Troops, as well as two Daisy Scout Troops.

She was known for her crazy sense of humor and strong personality, but was always ready to step in to help in a time of need. Scores of people counted her as one of their best friends, and there are many family legends of gatherings at her house.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to American Cancer Society,

American Diabetes Association, or Girl Scouts Nation's Capital.
