

Ky X. Ho

May 1, 1929 - September 29, 2014

Ky Ho passed away on Monday September 29th, 2014. He was 87. He was born and raised in Hoi An, Vietnam. He was ahead of his time in many ways. He travelled to Laos, Thailand, and Cambodia in his 20's. He taught himself English and started working as a translator for the US embassy. From there he learned telecommunications skills and became a telecommunications engineer. When he and his family came here from Vietnam in 1975, he worked for several telecommunications companies. His last job was with Boeing. He was well respected and well liked by friends and co-workers. He loved dancing. He was a very good ballroom dancer in his young days. He's survived by 2 sisters, 2 brothers, 3 daughters, 1 son, 3 sons-in-law, and 3 grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ Ky X. Ho

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May it help you and your family to know that after resting in death, the dead will be resurrected or brought back to life on earth by God's son. The Bible says: Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out (John 5:28-29). May knowing you will see your loved one again, bring you some comfort.

November 02, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May it help you and your family to know that after resting in death, the dead will be resurrected or brought back to life on earth by God's son. The Bible says: Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out (John 5:28-29). May knowing you will see your loved one again, bring you some comfort.

November 02, 2014 at 12:00 AM