“ B-Man and I are going to miss you skating in the Sunchase parking lot. I know you will be looking over us. Skate in Heaven for us.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Kyle, I only knew you for a breif period of time, but the memories you gave me last summer at camp will be forever in my heart. Your smile and easy going happy self will be missed. Go rest high on your mountain. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Scott, Vicky, Lauren & Phillip: There are no words to express our sadness for your loss. Kyle has the best smile, when he and Teddy would come play basketball with the boys. It was such great fun to see them together. He will be missed. Please know that we are here for you all. Love, Sue & Family

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Vickie and Scot, as the many people who have written before us, we are so saddened by the news of Kyle's death. Please know how much we are thinking of you and your family. We will keep all of you in our prayers and forever in our hearts.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ To The Bryant Family, We are deeply sorry for your loss and although there are no words to bring your son back, please know you are in our thoughts. If there's anything you need please do not hesitate to ask.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Family, I was Kyle's English teacher during his senior year here at Hayfield. Ms. Susan Kongalo and I were just comparing fond memories of Kyle. Our hearts go out to you. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Vicki, Scott and Lauren-It's been quite a long time since the kids were at the pool everyday or we saw you on the ballfield, but please remember that you are in our thoughts and prayers as you go through this time of great sorrow. May your love for one another as a family sustain you in your grief. Roxana, Joe, Diana, Laura, Michael and Maria Cammarata

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Vickie, You and Scot provided a very loving, caring, happy home for both of your children. Kyle must have known he was cherished by his parents and sister. Every time you shared information about your children, you let others see a glimpse of the wonderful bond all of you shared. I hope the knowledge of that special closeness brings you some comfort. Sending you a hug from my heart, Fondly, Mary Brown

“ Scot, Vickie, Lauren & Phil, We are so sad to hear about Kyle, we thought the world of him! We have so many fond memories of Kyle--
-patiently playing "golf" with our toddler in our front yard, gently encouraging our four-year-old to get into the swimming pool, riding waves with us at Virginia Beach when we happily crossed paths during summer vacation, tagging along with his sister Lauren to babysit and later standing in for her after she had left for college, watching over Rusty & his new little sister, Natalie. He was an adorable little boy who grew into a terrific young man. We will greatly miss him! Our hearts and condolences go out to you. Love,
Jeannie Beddard, Rusty & Natalie Brittingham

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Lauren and Family, My deepest sympathy is extended to each of you. Lauren, please know that I am here to support you in any way that is needed. 540-955-5678 With love, Tina

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Words cannot express or minimize such great sorrow. May God be with you and your family at this time and fulfill his promise of eternal life for your son...

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ I wish there was something I could do to ease the pain but its for naught. Our thoughts and prayers are for you all as life goes on.
Charles & Karen Menatti

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Scot and Vicki -- There are no words.... Just know that we are all here for you, for whatever you need -- just a call or email away. Lauren, you had such strength today, it showed how much you all loved Kyle. Know that all of us here in Hayfield are praying for you and Kyle and your family. Lean on your faith - although it is hard to believe today - know that God is with you and that He will keep you strong.

“ I will love you forever. ~MawMaw

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ I only worked with Kyle for a short time at Mount Vernon but he seemed like such a sweet young man. I have two children close to Kyles age and I can only imagine the great sorrow that this has brought to your family. I wanted to let you know that I am thinking of you and keeping you in my prayers. With most sincere condolences,
Michelle Tish

“ I met Kyle as one of his professors at JMU. Kyle was a very special person studying to become a teacher. I looked forward to seeing him each week. He stayed after class on many occasions to talk about music, astronomy, or just to chat. I know all his friends and teachers at JMU will miss him deeply. Geary Albright

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Oh Vicki, I was so very sorry to hear the news of your loss. I know there is nothing I can say that will help, just know my thoughts are prayers are with you and Scott. Please accept my condolences.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Vicki and Scott, Kyle's headstone is so beautiful. We hope you don't mind the little things we put on Kyle's grave. We visit Kyle and tell him all the goings on with Jake and college and how much we miss him. we love you both very much, our hearts will always hold him. all our love, Tami & Scott

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family. Kyle was a friend and classmate of my son. I will always remember his smiling face and happy disposition. He was clearly loved and a very happy guy.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ To the Bryant Family, I just wanted to let you know that Kyle will be missed by our family. He was a very warm person and it showed when he worked with children, always displaying kindness and patience. My children Jonathan and Muriel attend Kenwood Summer Day Camp, and were truly fond of Mr. Kyle. We will keep your family in our prayers.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Bryant Family, You have my deepest sympathies on the loss of your son Kyle. Your family is in my prayers during this difficult time.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Scot, Vickie and Lauren- The service today honored the life of Kyle and was so beautiful... so many wonderful and comforting verses of Scriptre. We pray that the Lord brings His special comfort to you in this great loss. You have been an example to us of making the most of every moment and cherishing your family. May God bless you with all of the wonderful memories you have! Love, Steve, Jenny, Emily, Amanda, Danielle and Luke

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Scot, Vickie & Lauren - We are so deeply sorry and our hearts ache for you. It seems like only yesterday that all of the boys were little and spending their days skateboarding and hanging out in the court. We will keep those memories close. Please let us know if we can help you in any way. You are in our prayers.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Words cannot express how we feel at this time. If we can help in any way, please don't hesitate to let us know.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Scot, Vickie and Lauren, We are still in shock at hearing the news. Our hearts ache for you and we only wish we knew the right words to comfort you in this great time of sorrow. We will always cherish all those great memories on the ballfield. There has not been a July 4th that we have not thought of Kyle since he and Jordan share the same birthday. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Please let us know if there is anything we can do for you at this most difficult time. We know in our hearts that Kyle and Teddy are in Heaven and will look out after you. Our Deepest Sympathy, Bruce, Theresa, Nolan & Jordan

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Kyle. two months after we buried teddy. holy crap. the only thing i can think to get through is teddy got lonely and needed someone to skate with. i know you and him are together now, and happier than ever. i miss you terribly. i love you.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Scot, Vickie and Family My deepest sympathy to you and your family during this time of sorrow. May God wipe away your tears and give you peace and comfort.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Vickie and Scot, please know that even though we don't know each other well, our hearts ache to know that your son has died. We care greatly about the pain you are going through. With great care, Judy and Roger Bennett

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Bryant Family, We want you to know that all of us who make up Lauren's learning community here at JMU Counseling Psychology are also shocked and saddened by your tragic loss. Please know, Lauren, that we are here to offer comfort and support when you return. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Scot, Vickie, Lauren, and Lois, I have searched for words and seem to be unable to find the right ones. I cannot offer comfort but I can pray for it. Your loss is so unmeasurably deep and my heart aches for all of you. Kyle was such a sweet soul and in time, I pray you will find peace and warm memories to fill your hearts and the void left by his passing. I am here for anything - please remember, how much I love you all. Jo Beth

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Vickie and family, You have my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear Kyle. You and I would share stories of our sons about the same age. May you take comfort in your memories and I pray the Lord be with you and your family during this time.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Vickie- My memories of the PTO working for Mr Kirk. I was there when Lauren was born/was at USGS when Kyle was born, had my first child after you had Kyle. There is no greater love/no greater loss. My heart goes out to you and your family! Rita (McClanahan Dunevant) Marshall VA

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Vickie and Family, My prayers and thoughts are with you at this time. I pray strength for you all. God Bless you.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Scott, Vickie, and Lauren, We are so sorry to hear about Kyle. May God wrap his loving arms around each of you during this difficult time. Know you are being thought of each and every day. The Hayfield community will always share in your sorrow.

“ Scot, Vicki, and Lauren -- I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I wish your family nothing but the best during this hard time. If there is anything I can do, please let me know.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Eric and I are devastated by this saddest of news and our hearts are with you in your grief. I smile as I think of the hundreds of stories Vickie has shared with us over the years. At PTO, we were definitely a family and Kyle and Lauren the children we watched growing up in front of us. You have been truly blessed with all of the sweet memories you have and let those fond memories comfort you now. We pray for your peace and comfort and are here for you if you need anything. God Bless, Cathy and Eric

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Vickie and Scot, We were totally shocked at the tragic news of Kyle's untimely death. We know your children are the most important thing in your lives as you always speak of them with that very special smile reserved only for people you love dearly. There are no words that can console you, but know that you are loved. If there is anything we can do to help you through this, please don't hesitate to give us a call.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Bryants, We are devastated to learn of the death of Kyle. You are definitely in our thoughts and prayers. Please let us know if there is anything we can do. Sincerely, Institutional Research, JMU

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ We are so saddened by your loss. We remember Kyle and especially your stories about him. You are in our prayers and we love you.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Vicki, Lauren, & Scott, our hearts are so deeply broken for the loss of your wonderful Kyle. Our eyes have shed so many tears we feel such sorrow & despair. Sweet memories of day's past, when the laughter of Kyle, Teddy, Zach, and Jake skateboarding hours on end filled the air. There will forever be a void your Kyle has left, which no one can ever fill. "To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die"___CLYDE CAMBELL we all loved him so, Tami,Jake,& Scott Wilkie

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Bryant Family, I had the privilege of teaching Kyle in eleventh grade English. I will always remember his dazzling smile and cheerful disposition. My prayers are with you.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dearest Scot and Vickie, our precious neighbor and work colleague, Mary, Hannah, and I share your grieving at this sad moment. You continually offer so much to those around you. Please do not hesitate to contact us if there is anything we can do for you or any way we can help. Love, the Davidsons

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ To the Bryant family: No words can express my sympathy for you and your family at this time. Please know that I have your family in my prayers daily.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ I just wanted to say I am so sorry for your loss. I have worked with Kyle for the past three years, at Kenwood Summer Day Camp. Kyle was such a terrific guy. He was a very respectable young man, and loved life. He was great with all of our kids that we worked with, and they all loved him very much. Kyle will truly be missed. I personally will miss Kyle, especially when I go back to work this summer. It just will not be the same..he always had a smile on his face, and just being around him just gave you some kind of peace. Love you lots Kyle. Your Friends Amy And Dakota

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Scot and Family: Kyle and I worked a short time together in the shops, but I was always impressed with what a good guy he was. I never know what to say in these instances, but I was saddened to hear this news and I am praying for ya'll. Froggett

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Vickie, Scot & Lauren, We join the chorus of friends and family who were blessed to know your Kyle's special spirit. My family is fortunate to have watched Kyle grow from helping with yard work to dogsitting to the gift shop at Mt Vernon to college. Every time we saw Kyle, his smile and bright eyes reflected the love and support that you nurtured in your family. Kyle's watching over you from heaven.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ You and your family have my deepest sympathy.

April 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dearest Vickie and Scot- How I remember the light in your eyes and the glow on your smiling faces when you talked about your children, two wonderful kids who grew up to be exceptional young adults. Words can't express the sadness I felt when I learned of Kyle's passing. Know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. With Deepest Sympathy, Keira and Eric Johnson
