“ When I look back and think of my childhood, the first thing that pops up is playing with my cousins at Grandma’s-- and that was pretty great! And my Uncle Lance was always there with us. Whether it be basketball, or football, or even an Easter egg hunt! Looking back, I can easily say we were so lucky to have those moments together. He and my Dad never wanted to go grow up. LOL.
Thank you Uncle Lance for some of the best core memories of my life!
And it didn’t hurt that people knew who my Uncle was, so I’m pretty sure they knew not to mess with me.
The fight you put up for your life will always amaze me. You never gave up. But you always did enjoy a little fight, right?
I love you Uncle Lance
