“ Our deepest sympathy to the Coggins Family. We knew Mr. Coggins through our family (Betty Jean and Jim Flowers). During some difficult times he provided great comfort and words of solace which we never forgot. The Coggins Family and Mr. Coggin's church family will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ We met Pastor Coggins during a deep valley in our life. His ministry was a great blessing to our family. His love, council, compassion for others and his service in Christ was instrumental in a victorious return to our Lord and Savior. Thank you Pastor Coggins. Love and welcome home. Peace and rest with our King! Amen

“ My heart is with you. It goes without saying that you are in my thoughts and prayers. It's such a juxtaposition to feel a little of pain of your loss and the joy of knowing that Pastor Coggins is now living what he's always dreamed of! His faith has become sight! I'm praying for you and rejoicing for him!

“ Dear Coggins family, It is with the deepest sympathy that we write this message... however, it's so much easier to face this loss knowing exactly where Pastor Coggins is and WHO he is with. We love you so much and pray for strength and comfort for you all to make it through the hard times... Be was a blessing to us and many!
