“ Aunt Laurina, how can I describe how much I loved you. You took me into your home when I was but a young high school graduate in 1959. You were always there for me, we shared so much, our pregnancy together when we were expecting my Rob and your Karen. Through the years, we could always talk, even after years of being apart, it was always like time wasn't important. You were so faithful to keep in touch, cards, telephone calls. We laughed a lot and we cried together many times. I thank you for your comforting words to me when I lost my husband recently, I think of what you told me, due to your losing Uncle Paul. My loving prayers for your entire family will continue.
Your loving niece, Rita Gail

“ One of the highlights of our friendship with Laurie and Paul was the many days of our travel together in Italy. Another was the week before Karen and Matt's wedding, Laurina felt it was so important that we stay with them at their house and be a part of all the last minute preparations. Also at the wedding, when she and I (RoseMarie) lite the Unity Candle at the altar that we hug each other, I still get teary eyed when I think how important she thought that gesture was to be!
