

Lawrence Taimanglo Atoigue

January 1, 1953 - March 2, 2019

Lawrence T. Atoigue a.k.a. Lorenzo, age 66, peacefully passed away March 2, 2019. He was wrapped in love and surrounded by family in his last days and hours. He fought a long 6-year battle with cancer before being called home to our Lord.

Lawrence is survived by daughter, Janice (son in-law, Will) and grandchildren: Jordan, Caleb, Makayla & Lauren. And son, Lawrence Jr. (daughter-in law, Melissa) and grandchild: Janiya.

Lawrence is a 21-year veteran of the United States Air Force, where he earned several decorations for his service and gained recognition for his work from former President of the United States of America and First Lady, George and Laura Bush. He grew up in Sinajana, Guam, with 13 siblings of Tomas and Engracia Atoigue.

Later in life, he had the opportunity to work for Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation at Andrews AFB and Germany. His attention to detail, intelligence and sense of humor was legendary. Lawrence took pride in playing the guitar, bass and drums especially with his bandmates in "Island Breeze Band" . He was a man of many talents but really enjoyed baking and cooking which led to writing his own family cookbook. His ultimate pride was his family and he leaves with us cherished memories of love, lessons, laughter, and a legacy we will never forget.

Rest In Peace Pop...We love you more than words could ever describe!

“ I can't remember the exact date...but we were living in San Diego, Ca I remember Uncle Larry and Uncle Benny got in a sibling argument which ended up one or both of them put a whole in our door... they were worried cause my dad their brother was coming home!! Uncle Larry always had pictures like Bruce Lee. RIP Uncle Larry.
