

Lecky Natanel Banua

December 26, 1982 - April 7, 2023

Lecky Natanel Banua passed away in his sleep at his apartment on April 7, 2023 (on Good Friday early morning). Lecky is survived by his loving immediate family: his father, Hengki Banua, his mother, Ida Rosita, and his sister, Selviana Banua.

Lecky was a loving, kind, smart, generous, friendly, talented, and funny person. He was certainly “the joker” of the family. His laughter was unbelievably contagious. He was passionate about his family, music, and work.

The best part of being in our family was getting together for every event you could find on the calendar. We normally went out to eat and always chatted at the dining tables, which was the best part of the gatherings. Lecky loved and cared deeply about his family and friends. He always offered his generous help with anything, anytime.

His passion about music always made him happy. The drums and the bass guitar were his best instruments. When you heard and saw him play these instruments, you would think that he went to music school. He did not because he had the ability to learn and play these instruments only by ear. He was that talented!

He was also passionate about work. His work ethic was impeccable. He always gave 101 percent in everything he did. He also called his coworkers by their names. Most importantly, he was able to talk to everybody and equally respected them regardless of the titles of their jobs. Now, that is a rare skill he had!

As we said goodbye to him today, we would like to thank him for everything that he did for our family and friends. He will certainly be missed, but he will always be in our hearts.

A memorial service will not be open to public. To celebrate his life, a private service has been scheduled only for the immediate family and a few people that are close to Lecky.

In lieu of gifts or money, his family requests that donations of flowers in memory of Lecky be sent to Groveton Baptist Church, 6511 Richmond Hwy, Alexandria, VA 22306.

“ We are so very sorry to hear of Lecky's passing. No doubt he is resting peacefully in heaven with Jesus. He was so very kind and generous to our family and I used to tell him that he was the "coolest guy I know" because he was so talented with music but had such a caring heart. We are praying for his family and confident that they will see him again. With big hugs, Richard, Bridget, Parrish and Caroline Wells

“ It broke my heart to hear that such a wonderful person and my friend had passed away. In times of loss like this I'm reminded that the Word of God says to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I pray that God gives strength to endure, comfort throughout the night, and peace to help ease the pain. I will forever see that big, beautiful smile and remember the laughs we shared every time we saw each other. I'll miss you my friend.

“ Mr. Lecky made our morning every single day. My favorite morning "pick me up" was our banter with Lecky. His attitude was infectious. He was so patient with Hunter engaging him in a morning greeting every weekday for 2 years.

You will be missed, your impact on people's lives was much greater than you knew.

“ Lecky had a wicked sense of humor! Often times he presented as a serious man, but underneath was a man who enjoyed making others laugh. I admired his faith in difficult situations. He knew God was with him! Lecky was a giving man. He freely gave of his time and talents. He wanted the world to know his Jesus and how wonderful He is! I pray for peace and comfort for the Banua family. Rest in peace, Friend! Until we meet again...

This is so shocking to think that Lecky is gone! Even though I didn't see him often lately, he was unforgettably humble and helpful. I will never forget playing with him in church. He played the bass and drums like a pro. My condolences to the Banua family; I am so grateful that we have the hope to see him on the other side.

“ A faithful friend and companion is a true treasure. I am thankful God blessed me and our family with years of love, tears and laughter with Lecky. Lecky had a deep spiritual relationship with Jesus. His insights and expressions of faith were refreshing. We worshipped together with music, had meaningful faith talks and encouraged each other to grow in faith. Lecky said frequently (with his big smile), “I want to be ready for Heaven!” I miss him already. But Lecky WAS ready and he's rejoicing in Heaven. Praise God!

“ Lecky has been a dear family friend and consistent wealth of joy for the majority of my life. My first memory was when I was very young and he bought me my own full size coke. He taught me my first guitar lesson, and was always so supportive of my growth in the arts as a way to praise God. We jammed out together, we spent time together - he was one of the most consistent friends in my growing up years. He was always so serious about serving God and every time I heard him pray, he prayed for the poor and the people that didn't know Jesus. While I wish I could pray that prayer with him again, and Lecky was one of the most joyful people I knew in this life, I know that it is somehow possible for him to be experiencing even greater joy in the presence of His Saviour Jesus Christ. Praise God for that. I'm so glad my whole family got to meet him.
