

Lettie D. Whitt

May 1, 1939 - February 1, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Lettie Dolores Whitt, who peacefully departed this life on February 1, 2025, in Virginia, surrounded by her loving family. Born on May 1, 1939, in Greensboro, North Carolina, Lettie was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother whose kindness and unwavering love touched the lives of all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, John Warren Whitt, and many cherished siblings. Though she will be deeply missed, she now joins them in eternal rest, leaving behind a legacy of love, kindness, and unwavering strength.

Lettie is survived by her three children: David Whitt (Dee Jay Whitt), John Whitt (Cindy Cox), and Sheila Gosnell (Katherine Gosnell). She was a proud and loving grandmother to eight grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren, all of whom brought immense joy to her life.

A dedicated homemaker for much of her life, Lettie later found joy working in retail and waitressing, where she made many dear friends and lifelong connections. She was a woman of warmth and kindness, always ready with a smile and a listening ear.

In the last five years of her life, she bravely battled dementia, relying on the care and support of many. Her family will forever be grateful to those who provided comfort and compassion during her journey.

Lettie's life was a testament to the power of family, the beauty of generosity, and the warmth of a kind heart. Her wisdom, laughter, and gentle spirit will forever be remembered and cherished.

Rest peacefully, your love will always guide us.

“ My favorite memory of my beautiful Aunt Delores is actually all of them. I was always greeted with a bright smile, laughter would be prominent during our visits and I would leave feeling loved. I know Uncle Warren and her siblings were waiting with open arms when God called her home. Heaven has gained an angel.
