

Linda Ann Woods

February 20, 1952 - September 24, 2012

A loving wife, mother and grandmother, loyal friend, dedicated medical practitioner and educator, Linda passed away peacefully in her sleep at Inova Fairfax Hospital on September 24, 2012, after an 18 month battle with ovarian cancer.

Born to Robert and Clara DeNearing on February 20, 1952 in Lyons New York, Linda earned a nursing degree from the University of Pittsburgh, later she was awarded a masters in nursing from George Mason University. Linda spent the last 25 years raising a family in Springfield, Virginia. In recent years, Linda spent her time teaching nurses, building a retirement home in Central Virginia, enjoying her children, grandchildren and friends. An avid piano player, talented cook, and spirited football fanatic, Linda was a sweet, kind woman with an energetic adventurous personality.

Linda is survived by her beloved husband of 36 years, James Woods; their children, Jaime, Lisa, Patti, and Jacob; five grandchildren, Thayer, Logan, Holly, Conor, and Luke; her mother, Clara DeNearing; her brother, Don DeNearing; and a wide circle of loving, caring family and friends. Linda will be missed dearly.
