

Linwood Alexander Welch

May 4, 1924 - September 11, 2020

Linwood Alexander Welch, 96, passed away peacefully on September 11, 2020.

Born in Orlean, VA, Linwood moved to the area working as a truck driver, where he met his wife, Margaret Ellen Rogers. They celebrated 74 years of marriage in March.

Linwood is survived by his wife, Margaret; a son Brian Welch (Donna); grandchildren Justin Welch (Natasha), and Shannon Silver (Justin); great grandchildren Jocelyn and James Lyons, and Hudson Silver.

He is preceded in death by his parents Henry and Ada Welch; brothers Carlin and William Welch; and daughter Lynda Welch-Heishman.

Linwood was a hardworking, dedicated man of integrity. He lived his life to the fullest, loving his family, chicken, chocolate, and shiny shoes!

Jefferson Funeral Home, Alexandria, VA, will be handling the arrangements for Wednesday, September 16th.

“ "The Boss" is my second cousin Miss Margaret. I have known Lin all my life. He has always been one of my favorite people. Sitting together with Lin, Margaret and Edna Dodd at FUMC, you could always count on him for a sweet kiss and a hug. We would have long conversations about gardening. He was always interested in how my garden was growing and was a bottomless source of advice and suggestions. The world has lost a kind gentle soul. You will be missed sweet man. RIP.

“ Lyn was a gentle, caring man. He loved Margaret, and his family very much. Usually before making a commitment, Lyn would check with Margaret, he lovingly called "the boss"! Lyn was always accepting of a kiss, and gave them just as easily!
