“ Mom: Hi, it's me, your redhead. I just want you to know how much I love you and how much I miss you. Life feels so empty and sad without you and dad, but I'm trying to be strong. All I know is that you are the most beautiful person I have ever known. Thank you for being my mom; thank you for giving me life. My love forever, Carolyn (your youngest)

“ I worked with your dad at Amoco Oil Co. in the seventies. My last day there, before giving birth to our first child the next day, we spent at your parent's house for Rady Johnson's 40th birthday. That was 30 years ago. I will always remember them.

“ Mom: I miss you so much, but I know you are now no longer suffering. I know that lying in bed, not being able to walk or talk drove you nuts and now you are reunited with Dad, your forever sweetie pie, and the two of you can be together and happy with God in paradise forever. Thank you for being the most amazing and loving mom any child could ask for. I hope you always know how much your three kids, your granddaughters, and all your extended family and friends adore you and love you. Give Dad a big kiss and hug for us. We miss and love you both. Love, Your youngest, Carolyn

“ Lois, Thanks for raising a wonderful, loving son and allowing me to love him as much as you did. I'll take good care of him and your grandchildren, who miss you dearly. Thanks for being the best Grandma to Morgan & Taylor, as well as the best mother-in-law a girl could ask for. I'll miss chatting over a glass (or two!) of wine with you, but will keep you in my heart forever. Love always, Trish
