“ My friend of 4 years, Maxine and I shared a very particular little joy as neighbors in Rose Hill. A bright spot in my life has gone away, but glowing memories remain. I will miss her with each flower I pick. Jan

“ Rick, Elaine, Bryan and family - I am so sorry for your loss. God could not have given you a more special Mother, Mother-in-law, Grandmother, Great Grandmother. Maxine so loved the Lord and shared that with all of you in her daily walk with Him. Out of that love and relationship with God, so many of her family also have trusted in Jesus as their personal savior and are walking daily with Him. One of the last things she shared with the ladies was that she would see them in Heaven. What a wonderful truth in which we can rest for those whose hope is in Christ Jesus. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you as you grieve and rejoice in Maxine's journey home.

“ Brian, I'm sorry about your grandmother. Being a grandmother myself, I know what a special bond that is!
