

Lorraine Mae Burns

February 23, 1938 - November 1, 2016

Lorraine Love Burns died peacefully at her home in Alexandria, Virginia on November 1, 2016, surrounded by her family. Lorrie was gleeful about voting early for Hillary Clinton and urges everyone to vote Democrat in her memory. She is survived by her sister, Jackie Proulx of Marquette, Michigan; her children Scott Burns and Hope O'Keeffe of Arlington, Virginia and Kent and Kathi Burns of Stallings, North Carolina; her grandchildren Megan, Patrick, and Nathan Burns and Aaron and Jeffrey O'Keeffe Horowitz; and her nephews Chris and Craig Proulx. Lorrie was born in Michigan on February 23, 1938 to Claude and Geneva Love, and grew up in Mount Pleasant. She was a proud Central Michigan University Chippewa, graduating in 1960; she retired in 1998 after many years as a career counselor at Thomas Edison High School in Alexandria. Donations in Lorrie's memory can support neighbors in need through the Koinonia Foundation at <http://koinoniacares.org>.
