“ Lou - Louie - was my best friend's younger brother, and since I was privileged to be considered part of his LaMarca family Louie was like a younger brother to me, too. As a "kid" he was a gentle soul with a big sense of humor for such a little kid. He was part of the beautiful time I spent growing up on Tooker Avenue in Oyster Bay - I can still visualize him there. And from what people have now said about him, he was pretty much the same man, husband, father, brother as he was as a child. You, we, I were all lucky to have him in our lives and I look forward to seeing him again on the other side.
With Love,
Tommy McNamara.

“ Words can not express my sorrow. I am proud to be his cousin and proud of how he lived his life. He had the greatest example in his Mom and Dad and his older brothers. I am only sorry I could not have been more like him...my ove and prayers are with each of you!

“ Lou was an amazing guy. He was smart, funny and just wonderful to be around. It was a pleasure working with him these past years. He will surely be missed, but the impression and impact he had on others will continue to live on.
