

Louisa R. Equi

November 30, 1934 - August 18, 2015

Louisa R. Equi passed away peacefully on August 18, 2015. She was born on November 30, 1934 in Idamay, West Virginia. She grew up in the mountains of West Virginia as a coal miner's daughter and moved to Washington, DC after graduating from High School. She excelled at her civilian career with the Department of the Navy and received numerous accolades and awards. When she retired from the Department of the Navy she transitioned to a second career at George Mason University. She lived her retirement years happily with her husband, Dino, and enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She and Dino traveled, played tennis and could always be seen with their dog, Kodi. She was loved and admired by all who knew her. She was a remarkable woman and will be sorely missed.

She is survived by her husband of 40 years, Dino Equi, her sons Frank and Steve Nesbit, Jerry Equi and daughter Lori Riehl, their spouses and her seven grandchildren.

Services will be held at Church of the Nativity in Burke, Virginia. Viewing 10 to 11:30am and a Mass at 11:30am on Saturday, August 22. A reception will follow at Springfield Country Club. In lieu of flowers donations are requested to the Alzheimer's Association, alz.org, and Capital Caring Hospice, capitalcaring.org/join-us/donate.
