

Louise Lee McCoy

December 22, 1928 - November 18, 2022

On November 18, 2022, at the age of 93, Louise Lee McCoy passed away peacefully in Fredericksburg, Virginia. Born in Pulaski County, Virginia on December 22, 1928, she was the daughter of Mark and Hattie Farmer and was raised in Radford, Virginia along with her two brothers, Charles “Bud” Farmer (deceased), Andrew Farmer and sister Annabelle Bain (deceased). It is in Radford, where she met Harold Richard McCoy. They were married on October 4, 1947 until Harold’s passing in 2001. After leaving Radford and beginning her married life with Harold when he joined the U.S. Army in 1948, she relocated to many locations around the world and became a loving mother to 4 children; Patricia McCoy Fields, Harold Richard McCoy II, Theresa McCoy Estes, and Mark Leslie McCoy. In 1972, Louise and Harold settled into their home in the Mt. Vernon area of Alexandria, Virginia where she resided until 2012. As a wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother she selflessly devoted her life to the care and upbringing of her beloved family in that home. She is survived by three of her four children Patricia, Theresa, and Mark who have many fond memories of their Mom, as well as ten grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, who will greatly miss their Nana. A talented cook, seamstress, and quilter, she always had an artistic eye and excelled at many different crafts, which she bestowed upon her family as an expression of her love.

As a dedicated Army wife, her funeral service will be held at 9:00 am on February 2, 2023 at the Ft. Myer Chapel, Arlington, Virginia; followed by burial in the Arlington National Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to The Army Emergency Relief Fund. (<https://www.armyemergencyrelief.org/donate/>)
