“ Lowell & I walked our doggies together almost every day for several years--rain or shine. Our dogs were great friends & I appreciated Lowell's friendship & our mutual bond. I always looked forward to our walks (as did the dogs for sure) & hearing about his latest movie or book review. It is a nice memory & I am grateful to have known Lowell. Cherish your precious memories--forever. He was so proud of his family. May God bless & comfort you at this time & always.

“ We will always remember Lowell as a loving father and a patriot who loved his country. It was always a treat for us when he happened to be visiting Vicki and Michael at the same time we were there. He was an extremely interesting person to talk with and fun to be around. We are sorry that those days are over. We want to express our sorrow to the family at the loss of one great DAD, and especially to our wonderful "daughter" Vicki.
