Luz Marfori Zak

May 8, 1936 - October 1, 2022

Luz Marfori Zak of Annandale, Virginia passed away Saturday, October 1, 2022. Luz was the fifth of nine children of Ambrosio and Maria (Bernardo) Marfori. She is preceded in death by her husband, Michael Zak, and her siblings; Arceli (Tibong), Virgilia (David), Josephine, Alberto (Annie), Eduardo (Naty), Danilo (Editha), and Rogelio (Edna). She is survived by her sister, Rowena Marfori Urcia (Andy), and many nieces and nephews.

Luz was born and raised in Binan, Laguna, Philippines. After she earned a degree in Education, Luz taught in Sulu, Zamboanga for several years prior to moving to Washington, D.C. where she met her husband Michael. Luz traveled extensively since Michael's career brought them to many places around the world. The countries she enjoyed visiting the most were the Dominican Republic, Ghana, and Croatia. After her husband's retirement from the State Department, they settled in their home in Annandale, where Luz continued to be active - playing tennis and swimming almost every day.
