

Lyssie Lynn Guyer

September 6, 1947 - May 1, 2011

Lyssie (Brown) Guyer of Alexandria, Va., formerly of Davenport, Iowa, died Sunday, May 1, 2011, at INOVA Mount Vernon Hospital after a courageous battle with cancer.

Lyssie was born on September 6, 1947, daughter of Walter and Mildred Brown. Lyssie graduated from Central High School in 1965 and was formerly married to Keith Guyer. She worked for the U.S. Army Materiel Command for more than 30 years. Lyssie enjoyed playing cards, shopping for antiques, cooking, and spending time with family and friends.

A memorial gathering will be held at Jefferson Funeral Chapel, 5755 Castwellan Drive, Alexandria, Va., on Thursday, May 5, 2011, from 5 to 7 p.m. followed by a celebration of life at the Franconia Moose Lodge.

Survivors include her daughter, Michele (Robert) Cleveland; grandchildren, Jessica (Mike) Willis and Jeremy Guyer; great-grandson, Nicholas Willis of Alexandria Va.; sister, Betty Jean Daley, Davenport, Iowa; and two loving dogs, Baby and Sissy. Lyssie was preceded in death by her parents.

Tribute Wall

“ Lyssie Lynn Guyer

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ Rest in peace

May 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Michelle, Jessica and Jeremy, My sincerest condolences on your Mom and Grandmother's passing. She fought hard and I know that her passing suddenly sent you all reeling. She led a full life and I hope in time the pain will ease and the comfort of our Lord will help each of you. Sorry I couldn't get there to support you in person, but, you each have been in my thoughts daily. Sincerely, Kolleen and Mac McGrath

May 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I work with Lyssie from May 2005 until Mar 2009 at AMC HQ as a contractor. She was a very nice person. My prayer go out to family . The emails we shared over the years was a inspiration. She never turn down a word of encouragement . May God bless you Lyssie. You will be miss!!

May 05, 2011 at 12:00 AM