

Mack C. Lloyd

September 20, 1947 - October 8, 2018

Lloyd, Sr. Mack Coleman of Alexandria, Virginia, passed away peacefully on October 8, 2018 in the presence of his loving family at the Capital Caring Halquist Hospice in Arlington, Virginia. He was newly 71 years old. The long time angler, fly fisherman, devoted family man and constant comedian was born September 20, 1947. He has spent his life as a Master Electrician and even more master angler. Mack was the devoted husband to the late Sharon L. Lloyd and father to the late Mack C. Lloyd, Jr. Mack is survived by his loving daughter, Rebecca Lynn Lloyd-Filippa, sister, Linda Eskridge and step children, Aaron Church, Wendy Church and Mark Church. He is remembered fondly by his grandchildren, Lincoln M. Filippa, Alexander Church, Brianna Church and Aidan Church as well as his cousin, Newt Sayers, niece Anne Oakley and nephew Jonathan Lloyd.

Public services will be held Saturday October 13, 2018 at Mt. Comfort Cemetery (South Kings Highway, Alexandria) at 3:00pm. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that friends and family make a contribution in his name to the Chesapeake Bay Foundation (protecting the Chesapeake Bay Watershed and building a better future for fishing and wildlife in the Chesapeake Bay <http://www.cbef.org> for more information on how to donate).

“ *Your smile, your jokes, your play on words and other enuendos will be sorely missed. The made up words we used with each other you carry with you. I am truly blessed I got to share all that with you.
Your sister, Linda*

“ Mack's family: I'm so sorry for your loss. I went through a similar situation and I was very helped by the hope that I found in the Bible in John 5:28, which says, "Do not amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". I am sending you a link with more information on this hope. <https://www.jw.org/en/publications/magazines/awake-no3-2018-nov-dec/>
