“ After 8 years in Boston area, I returned to Alexandria, now living in Fredericksburg. While driving down Londonderry, I noticed Margaret's house for sale, and now learn she passed away. Margaret, to this date, was the nicest neighbor I ever had, always a smile, always something to laugh about. The yearly visits of her grandchildren excited my own children, and they played together daily. I'm sorry for your loss, and sorry the world has lost a lovely, neighborly lady. With kind regards and with fond memories, Peggy Severson
