“ My heartfelt sympathy to Peg's family. I was a classmate of hers in HS and then reconnected on Facebook. It was wonderful to see her love for her children, grandchildren, and church activities. I always enjoyed seeing the funny, bright pictures and ideas she would share and I hope that our conversations helped her through some of her harder days. What a huge loss for all of us.

“ Tessa and Clay, your Mom taught many people how to live their lives as King's Kids. Her love for the Lord shined through the many roles and tasks she performed. As a Mom and Grandma, she tried to instill the Love of the Lord in the lives of her children and grandchildren. She was a friend, encourager, Girl Scout leader, Pastor, teacher, Pickles the clown who led others to Christ and taught by example. As a child of the King, she lived her life knowing God loves her and that "all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose." Romans 8:28.
I am sorry that I will not be able to be with you today as you celebrate, but please know that I will be keeping you and your families in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Tessa, Clayton, family and friends , I am so sorry for your loss. I knew Peg as a class mate from elementary through high school In Sharpville. We had many good times in band and church. Our MYF group was lots of fun. I hope you find comfort in knowing that Peg was loved by so many. I will always remember her for the kind words and offered prayers when my husband died last December. When I think of Peg it will be with that beautiful smile on her face and a twinkle in her eye. May she rest in peace.

“ Tessa and Clay - Ken and I grieve with you â€“ Peg was such a special person for us, as are you both. Peg introduced me to Tolkien and C.S. Lewis and many other authors who took me to new worlds (and Virgil, who got me through 12th grade Latin). Her spiritual influence was invaluable and I praise Jesus that we will all be together again one day. Hopefully with puppets - those were awesome so I can't imagine they aren't in Heaven as well.

“ Peg and Family - The Parsons' family send their deepest and most sincere thoughts to all. Peg was like family to all of us, especially to our mother, Louella. Her life changed all of our lives for the better. Peg brought the light of Christ into our family as well as into Pine Grove UMC. Things were never quite the same after she became our pastor. Peg taught each of us how to step out of our comfort zone and do amazing things in the name of Jesus Christ. She taught us that a family that worships together is a family that stays together. I am so glad Peg and Mom were able to have that long phone conversation shortly before her passing. I'm glad I was able to tell my sister Peg that I loved her. Again, our prayers for the family go out to each of you. Love and peace in Christ, Susie Ballenger.

“ Peg may not be walking this earth now, but she is walking with her heavenly Father. Peg will never be forgotten because she impacted so many lives and brought people to Christ that she never knew about. Tessa and Clay walk tall knowing that your mother was an angel to us and now she is an angel walking beside God. We have to stand on our memories and the promise of God that we will all see each other in heaven. With you in your sorrow, but rejoice she is free.

“ Dear family of Peggy Nottingham Mitchell, we are sorry to learn of Peg's passing, but know she is in a better place helping all the other angels entertain God's children with no pain of any kind. We will continue to keep you in our thoughts and prayers as you adjust to an earthly world without her. Sending kind thoughts, strength and peace to all of you. “ A sister in Christ and Director of "The Witness" a musical that moved many, many people From Jan. 1980 through June 48 young people from 7th through 12th grade traveled to churches, colleges to present this beautiful worship experience. A True life changing event !
Also, puppet Harvey to went to the beach to be saved along with those same young people from above. Ours has been a long lasting adventure with our Lord!
I know she is dancing down the streets of heaven singing at the top of her voice... You will be missed by your family and many friends.

“ Tessa and Clay. I am so sorry for your loss but we all know that Peg is singing with the Angels!! I will always remember your mom as the person who showed me I could have a personal relationship with our Lord and Saviour when she was our minister at Pine Grove UMC and will always be grateful to her for that. She was an amazing lady and will be missed by everyone that crossed her path. I am sorry to say I will not be able to make the service on Friday but wanted you both to know that I am thinking of you and your families. God's blessings to all of you, Debbie Pope

“ I will remember her help at the last Chrysalis walk. I will fondly remember her when I read "Tacky the Penguin" books. I was holding onto a penguin bookmark so I will use it and remember her fondly.
Much love, Linda Crowder :)

“ Peg - Wish we could have got to know each other better. You have so many blessings in your life from what I learned from my daughter Anita (your daughter in law). Clayton is such a fine young man and it's because of you. Anita is blessed to have your son Clayton as her husband. Thank you for you kind words you sent me after our children married. I will always remember them.

I appreciate the kind words that you shared with me as encouragement towards my Avon Walk and very much so appreciate the donations that you made towards it for the past couple years.. You are one giving loving person. I'm glad the lord was watching over you as you moved onto brighter places. “ Dear Peg - we're all heartbroken that you're gone even though we know you aren't suffering anymore in any way. I have so many great memories of school and church and friendship that I'll treasure always. It was wonderful to be able to reconnect via Facebook and keep in touch after all the years apart. You were a blessing to many people and always a positive influence on everyone. You had a wonderful smile and I'll remember that when I think of you. You are with the Lord now. Peace be with you and your family.
